Dear Brother/Sister,

We are very pleased that you have expressed an interest in attending this year's Chapter commemorating the Festival of Saint Andrew, Patron Saint of Scotland.

The chosen venue for our ceremony and gala dinner on Saturday the 10th November is the celebrated St Salvator's College with its attached 15th century Chapel in the picturesque historic coastal town of St Andrews, in the Kingdom of Fife, some 40 miles north of the capital city of Edinburgh. The hotel and meeting point is nearby in the impressive new Holiday Inn Hotel in Dundee, the "City of Discovery."

Registration and Tickets are £50 per person payable on the Friday evening. This is a one-off payment for the entire Chapter and includes registration, transport by bus from the hotel to the venue in St Andrews and back again on the Saturday, and also the Gala Dinner.

After negotiation, hotel rooms have been made available to those of the Order for a heavily discounted price of £50 per night for a double room i.e. £25 per night per person if you share. This includes a hot breakfast. Hotel bookings must be made over the telephone and the code for the discounted rate is "Templar". The Hotel's details are;
